

Seeking Overseas Sales Agents & Distributors

We are expanding our global presence and are looking for experienced sales agents, distributors, and business partners to represent our machine manufacturing business in international markets.

Riggs Autopack Ltd specialise in manufacturing high-quality depositors and filling equipment for the food production industry, designed for reliability, efficiency, and long-term performance.

With competitive pricing, strong technical support, and proven manufacturing expertise, we offer an excellent opportunity for partners looking to grow their business.

Why partner with us?

-  First class industry reputation
-  High-quality, proven machinery
-  Full technical and sales support
-  Marketing materials and training provided
-  Opportunity for exclusive territory rights

We are currently interested in developing long term business partnerships in:

-  Spain, Portugal, Italy
-  Eastern Europe
-  North and South America
-  Middle East
-  Africa
-  Southeast Asia

If you have experience in industrial equipment sales, distribution networks or local market development, we would love to connect. Get in touch to discuss partnership opportunities.
